COLORADO TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY ONLINE NAMES HARVARD AND PRINCETON GRAD AS DEAN OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

HOFFMAN ESTATES, Ill. (July 20, 2009) - Colorado Technical University (CTU) Online announced the hiring of Robin Wagner, Ph.D. as the new Dean of Academic Affairs for all academic programs at CTU Online. In her new position, Wagner will be responsible for overseeing the education of more than 20,000 students in addition to supervising all academic program chairs. Wagner will also be responsible for coordinating new programs and course development.

"Robin's background in world-renowned cultural institutions such as the Field Museum and the School of the Art Institute of Chicago made her an outstanding candidate for the position," said Wallace Pond, CTU Online president and chancellor. "CTU is thrilled to have her on staff and I look forward to working with her to develop programs that aim to prepare our students for diverse careers in the global economy."

Prior to joining CTU Online, Wagner gained a variety of educational experience at positions with some of Chicago's premier learning institutions, including the Institute for the International Education of Students, School of the Art Institute of Chicago, University of Chicago and the Field Museum. A Ph.D. graduate from Harvard University, Wagner also spent several years at Harvard University as an academic advisor and teaching fellow.

"CTU Online is pushing the boundaries in online education," Wagner said. "I'm excited to use my skills and expertise to help develop dynamic learning environments for our students in web 3.0."

CTU Online, a completely internet-based approach to learning, allows busy students to pursue a degree at their convenience in fields such as: business and management, criminal justice and public administration, health sciences, information systems and technology and interdepartmental degrees. The faculty and staff of CTU are dedicated to providing its students with the skills they will need to succeed in the real world.
