Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Notice
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) afford eligible students certain rights with respect to their education records. Graduation, Retention and Placement Rate Information
The school calculates graduation statistics as required by the federal Student Right-to-Know Act. The school also publishes any placement rates it must calculate for a state agency or accreditor. Student outcomes information is posted on the website here.

Information about retention rates as reported to the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) can be found by visiting nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator.
Disclosures and Gainful Employment Programs
The school must disclose certain information about each of its gainful employment programs to prospective students including:

- The occupations that the program may prepare students to enter based on the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code,
- The normal time to complete the program,
- The on-time graduation rates for students completing the program,
- The tuition and fees the school charges a student for completing the program within the normal time, including the cost of books, supplies, and fees unless they are included in the cost of tuition,

Improvements to Academic Programs
The school reviews its academic programs on a regular basis to ensure relevancy with current employment requirements and market needs. As deemed appropriate, the school may change, amend, alter or modify program offerings and schedules to reflect this feedback. If you have questions about this process, contact the institution’s education department.

Copyright Infringement
Students should be aware that the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material, including unauthorized peer-to-peer file sharing, is subject to civil and criminal liabilities. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or “statutory” damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For “willful” infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys’ fees. Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense. The school prohibits use of its computers and computer networks for the unauthorized downloading and uploading of copyright-protected material, or for maintaining or storing unauthorized copyright-protected material. Disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from the school, will be taken against students who engage in unauthorized distribution of copyrighted materials using the school’s information technology system.
The school’s online library offers subscription databases with copyrighted materials students can print, download, or email to themselves. Students are encouraged to consult with their health care professional to discuss obtaining or updating vaccinations.

Treatment of Federal Student Aid-Title IV-When a Student Withdraws - Requirements of 34 CFR 668.22

The laws and regulations are very specific about how the school must determine the amount of federal student aid (Title IV) program assistance you have earned and may retain if you withdraw from school. The Title IV programs that are covered include: Federal Pell Grants, Iraq Afghanistan Service Grants, Federal Direct Stafford Loans, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, and, at CTU only, Federal Perkins Loans.

When you withdraw during your payment period or period of enrollment, your school can define these for you and tell you which one applies to you, if you received (or your school or parent received on your behalf) less aid than you earned (based on the federal formula), you may be able to receive those additional funds. If you received more aid than you earned, then the excess amount must be returned to the aid program (by the school and/or by you).

The amount of assistance that you have earned is determined by a federal formula to calculate the pro rata percentage of the payment period completed prior to withdrawing. For example; if you completed 30% of your payment period or period of enrollment, then you earn 30% of the aid you were originally scheduled to receive. However, once you have completed more than 60% of the payment period or period of enrollment, you are considered to have earned all the assistance that you were scheduled to receive for that period.

If you did not receive all of the funds that you earned, then you may be due a post-withdrawal disbursement. If your post-withdrawal disbursement includes Federal Direct Loan funds, then the school must contact you and explain your obligation to repay the loans, if disbursed, and get your permission before the loan funds can be disbursed to you. You may choose to decline some or all of the loan funds so that you don’t incur additional debt. Your school may automatically apply all or a portion of your post-withdrawal disbursement of grant aid funds to outstanding tuition, fees, books and supplies (if billed separately by the school) and room and board charges (if contracted with the school). However, the school needs your permission to use the post-withdrawal grant aid disbursement for all other non-education related school charges. If you do not give your permission for the school to apply aid funds to other education related charges (some schools ask for this authorization when you enroll), then you will be offered the funds. However, it may be in your best interest to give permission to allow the school to apply aid funds to other incurred charges in order to reduce your debt at the school.
There may be some Title IV funds that you were scheduled to receive but which cannot be disbursed to you once you withdraw because of other Title IV eligibility requirements. For example, if you are a first-time, first-year undergraduate student and you have not completed the first 30 days of your program before you withdraw, you will not be eligible to receive any Federal Direct Stafford Loan funds that you would have received had you remained enrolled past the 30th day.

If you receive (or your school or parents receive on your behalf) excess Title IV program funds that must be returned, the return must be a portion of the excess equal to the lesser of:

1. your institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
2. the entire amount of excess funds.

The return of funds is required even if the school didn’t retain this amount of your aid funds.

If your school is not required to return all of the excess funds (e.g., some of excess aid was money that was provided directly to you as a stipend), then you must return the remaining amount.

- Any Federal Direct Loan funds that must be returned is accomplished as you (or your parent for a Federal Direct Parent-PLUS Loan) repay the loan in accordance with the terms of the promissory note. That is, you make scheduled payments to the holder of the loan over a period of time.
- Any amount of unearned grant aid funds that you must return is called an overpayment. The maximum amount of a grant overpayment that must repaid is limited to the amount by which the original grant overpayment amount exceeds one-half of the total grant funds you received or were scheduled to receive. A student does not have to repay a grant overpayment of $50 or less. If you are required to return unearned grant aid funds, you must make arrangements with your school, or the Department of Education to return these funds.

If the school returns federal student aid (Title IV) funds on your behalf (e.g., some of excess aid was money that was provided directly to you as a stipend), then your school may also pass that charge on to you for any Title IV program funds that they were required to return.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when you withdraw are separate from any tuition refund policy that your school may have. Therefore, you may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. If you don’t already know what your school’s refund policy is, you can ask your school for a copy. Your school can also provide you with the requirements and procedures for officially withdrawing from school.

If you have questions about your federal student (Title IV) aid program funds, you can call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-FEDAIL (1-800-433-3243). TTY users may call 1-800-730-8913. Information on Student Aid is also available at www.studentaid.ed.gov. Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Information

In accordance with the requirements of the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 (Public Law 101-226), and the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 (Public Law 101-690), our school provides all students and employees with the following information concerning school policies and the consequences of the manufacture, distribution, possession, or use of any illegal drugs under federal, state or local laws or the illegal possession and/or use of alcohol.

Students and employees are prohibited from unlawfully manufacturing, distributing, possessing, or using illegal drugs under federal, state or local laws or illegally possessing or using alcohol while on school property or misusing alcohol while participating in any school or work-related activity outside the school or workplace. Violation of this policy will subject students or employees to corrective action up to and including dismissal or termination of employment. In addition, a violation may result in local, state, and/or federal criminal charges.

Legal sanctions under local, state, and federal laws may include:

- suspension, revocation, or denial of a driver's license
- loss of eligibility for federal financial aid or other federal benefits
- property seizure
- mandated community service
- felony conviction with associated penalties
- monetary fines

In addition to local and state authorities, the federal government has four agencies (the Drug Enforcement Agency, U.S. Customs Service, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the U.S. Coast Guard) engaged in combating federally illegal drugs. One should be aware that:

- it is a crime to hold someone else's illicit drugs
- it is a crime to sell fake "dope"
- it is a crime for being in a house where people are using illicit drugs, even if you are not using them it is a crime if drugs are in your locker, car, purse, or house which is considered "constructive possession"

Drug abuse, which can affect one’s physical and emotional health and social life, is the utilization of natural and/or synthetic chemical substances for non-medical reasons to affect the body and its processes, the mind and nervous system, and behavior. Drugs can be highly addictive and injurious to the body. Among the manifestations may be loss of sense of responsibility and coordination, restlessness, irritability, anxiety, paranoia, depression, acting slow-moving, inattentiveness, loss of appetite, sexual indifference, coma, convulsions, and death.

There are classic warning signs that could be indicative of drug use. These signs include:

- Unexplained change in personality or attitude
- Drop in attendance and performance at work or school
- Deterioration of physical appearance, personal grooming habits
- Sudden mood swings, irritability, or angry outbursts
- Unexplained need for money or financial problems. May borrow or steal to get it
- Engaging in secretive or suspicious behaviors
- Sudden change in friends, favorite hangouts, and hobbies

Information regarding the effects of commonly abused drugs may be found on the internet at www.drugabuse.gov/drugs-abuse.

Drug and alcohol abuse education programs are offered by local community agencies. The school will post information about such education programs at the Office of Student Services.

In certain instances, students may be referred to counseling and/or a substance abuse help center. If such a referral is made, continued enrollment is contingent upon attendance and successful completion of any prescribed counseling or treatment. The cost of such assistance or treatment will be the responsibility of the student. Students who are seeking treatment for a substance abuse problem may contact the President’s or Campus Director’s Office. Confidentiality will be maintained. In addition, students who believe they have a substance abuse problem may find sources of treatment or advice by referring to the section of the local telephone book headed "Drug Abuse & Addiction Information and Treatment."

Employees with questions or concerns about substance dependency or abuse are encouraged to discuss these matters with their manager or Human Resources to receive assistance or referrals to appropriate resources in the community. Employees may also contact the Employee Assistance Program. Employees in violation of the Drug and Alcohol Use Policy may be required to participate in a substance abuse rehabilitation or treatment program. The cost of such assistance or treatment will be the responsibility of the employee.

There are also national organizations that may be contacted for help, such as:

- The Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Hotline 1-800-ALCOHOL (1-800-252-6465)
- National Drug Abuse Helpline 1-866-874-4553
- The National Institute on Drug Abuse Treatment Referral Hotline 1-800-662-HELP (4357) or http://findtreatment.samhsa.gov/
- Al-Anon for Families of Alcoholics 1-800-344-2666

IMPORTANT

The Federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 requires that each employee notify his/her manager in writing within five days of conviction of any criminal drug statute when such offense occurred in the workplace.

As stated in the institution’s catalog students convicted of any criminal offense while enrolled must report that conviction to the school within ten (10) days of receiving the conviction.

Campus Crime and Safety Information

The school prepares a report annually to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) and Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). This report is prepared in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies. Campus crime, arrest, and referral statistics within the report include those that were reported to local law enforcement and campus faculty and staff. A copy of this report is available for review at the following URL: http://www.coloradotech.edu/~/media/CTU/Files/PDF/campus-security-report-online.ashx

Textbook Information

To the extent practicable, the school posts verified textbook pricing information on its student portal for all required and recommended materials for all classes. This pricing information includes the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) and retail price, if applicable, for each course listed on the Student Portal.
